

Development Administration - Ecological Public Administration - Public Policy analysis.

7. Organization theory :

- (a) Neo-Human Relationism/Post-Hawthorne social psychology of organization.
- (b) Technology and organizations :
  - (i) Technological Determinism - Whyte, Sayles Warler and Guest Blauner.
  - (ii) Socio-technical systems - Woodward, Trist, Miller and Rice.
  - (c) Structural Functionalism - Katz and Kahn, Selznik and Gouldner.
  - (d) Post-Weberian approaches to Bureaucracy.
  - (e) Structural synthesis of Amitai Etzioni.

Second Half

1. Evolution of Indian administration.
2. Socio-economic background of Indian Civil Service.
3. Organization, Functioning and Role of PMO - structure of Indian bureaucracy - recruitment and training - role of the UPSC and SPSCs - neutrality of bureaucracy.
4. State autonomy in the perspective of center-state administrative relations.

5. Parliamentary control over finance - PAC, Estimates Committee, CAG.

6. Planning in India - stages in the plan formulation - processes and structure of planning bodies - Planning Commission and the National Development Council - planning at the district level - District Planning Board.

7. Citizen and administration - Lok Pal and Lok Ayukta.

Paper - VIII

First Half

1. Different approaches to local government.
2. Theories of democratic decentralization.
3. Historical evolution of local government in India.
4. Place of local government in national politics.
5. Central control over local bodies - question of autonomy.
6. Political parties and local self-government.
7. Crisis of local institutions and trend toward bureaucratization.
8. Problem of local finance.