

( 16 )

The Marxist synthesis : ideological domination : social formation and symbolic landscape
Marxism and anthropology, using Marxist theory to understand social relations, Foucault.

6. Power, authority, and states : theoretical frameworks and debates, social structures and institutions, interests and organization, culture and identity.

Second Half

Anthropological issues in politics

1. Nationalism - theories of nationalism - national liberation - colonial critique - Orientalism, nation-state's penetration into the periphery - history, narrative and genealogy in crafting the nation - Long-distance nationalism.
2. Ethnicity and pluralism - theories of ethnicity - objectification of culture.
3. Clientelism, patronage, co-optation and hegemony.
4. Law : legitimacy and domination.
5. Military occupation as incorporation : forms of belonging in the occupied territories.
6. Post-national belonging : immigrant incorporation and new forms of citizenship analysis.

( 17 )

7. Space and time - contesting histories : politics of space, structuralism, a structuralist synthesis : ethnographic philosophy - recuperating diasporic history in space and text - space-time as a product of inter-subjective practices.

Group - B

Cultural Politics

Paper - VII

First Half

1. First Principles : Marxism and culture - language and culture - Frankfurt School and culture industry - Semiotics and Signification - Individualism and Subjectivity.
2. Conceptualization :
  - (a) Representation
  - (b) Identity and difference
  - (c) Hybridity
  - (d) Ideology and Resistance
  - (e) Desire, Knowledge and Power
  - (f) Consumption