

( 6 )

10. Social work education — objectives of field work and supervision — professional organizations — status and problems of professional social workers — changing trends in social work — role of the government in promoting social welfare and social work profession in India.

Paper III

Human Growth Behaviour and Social Work

1. Human growth and development — meaning. Determinants of human behaviour — heredity and environment.
2. Psychology — definition, nature and scope — relevance of psychology to social work profession — methods/fields.
3. Different phases of maturity — prenatal, infancy, childhood, adolescence, adulthood, old age.
4. Motivation, emotion and adjustment — motivation of human behaviour, theories of motivation, social and economic forces in motivation.
5. Personality — theories of personality — Trend's psychoanalytical theory, neo-Trendian contribution, Allport's psychology of individual, Skinner's Operant Reinforcement theory, Lewis's Field Theory.

( 7 )

6. Concept of normality of human behaviour, theories of motivation, social and economic forces in motivation.
7. Concept of learning and memory — concept of intelligence — attitude and attitude measurement — attitude scales and other techniques.
8. Perception — its cultural determinants, social learning and social interaction.
9. Mental health — meaning — different dimensions — alcoholism — drug addiction and suicide — promotion of mental health.
10. Psychometry — few basic tests of intelligence — performance tests and scales of interests and attitudes.

Paper IV

Community Organization and Development (Rural and Urban)

1. Concept, scope and definition of community and community development philosophy — process and methods of community development — community development and community organization.
2. Indian rural and urban communities — socio-cultural and economic indicators — social structures.