

Unit V : Dissensions in American Society, 1860-1890

The Labour Revolts; Christian Reformists and the State; the Conflicts between the Railroad Companies and the Peasantry; the Granger Movement; the Hay market Square Incident and its Impact on American Polity.

Unit VI : The Progressive Era, 1890-1910

The Significance of the Progressive Movement; the Characterisation of the Robber Barons; the Muck Rakers; Theodore Roosevelt and Trust Busting.

Unit VII : America's Involvement in World Politics, 1914-1925

Woodrow Wilson's Fourteen Point Programme and the Treaty of Versailles; the Washington Conference; Reviewing the Isolationist Policy; American Interpretation of Collective Security.

Unit VIII : Great Depression and the United States, 1929-1937.

The Hoover Administration; the Wall Street Crash; the Debate over Gold and Silver Standards; Unemployment and Poverty in the US; F.D. Roosevelt and the Path of Recovery; the Governmental Regulations; the New Deal Measures.

Unit IX : America goes to War

The Bombing of the Pearls Harbour; the End of Neutrality; the Grand Alliance; the Debate over Land Lease; the War Years.

Unit X : American Society in a Changing World, 1910-1940

The Big Business and the Middle Classes; the Role of Corporations; Debates in American Society — the Conservatives and the Progressives; Press and Literature as vehicles of Social Protest; Prohibition; the Charlie Chaplin Era; Jazz, Blues and Choir Music; Race Relations.