

3. Two Main Centres of the East India Company's influence — Hyderabad/ Carnatic.
4. Growth of Hyderabad as a Political Unit Anglo-Nizam-Relations in the context of Political Realignments in South India.
5. Rise of Mysore as an anti-imperialist Force-Mysorean invasion of Malabar
 - (a) Background — Mysore as a Centre for Indigenous Industry in the early 18th Century.
 - (b) Rise of Haider Ali from obscurity to power — His relations with the neighbouring Regional Forces — Marathas & the Nizam.
 - (c) Haider's Relations with the British — First & Second Anglo-Mysore Wars.
 - (d) Resistance and Protest Movement : Tipu Sultan and the East India Company.
 - (e) The Grand Finale at Seringapatnam — Why did the British opt for direct administration rather than an indirect rule ?
 - (f) The reasons behind the political decline of Mysore - Was it simply due to the lack of modernization ?
6. The Moplahs of Malabar — their influence as traders — their revolts — combinations of features of religious devotions with social protest.

7. Evolution of local power— Poligars — the 'war-band' leaders — their political influence — Rebellion & Resistance against Company Raj.

Section II

Economic History

1. The Village Community in the Madras Presidency — Village Organisation Introduction of the British System — The Decay of the Village.
2. The Agrarian Structure — Land Tenure — Land System — Tenant-Landlord Relations — (Changes in the early British Rule) — The Serfdom.
3. Agriculture Practices — Crop Production — Irrigation — Difference in the Wet & Dry Land.
4. Money & Power in the South in the late 18th Century — Centres of East India Company's Influence — Northern Centres & Hyderabad.
5. Changes in British Land Revenue Policy & Agrarian Structure — The Zamindari System — The origins of the Raiyatwari System.
6. 18th Century Kerala : Fragmented into a large numbers of small kingdoms — Land Revenue System — Customary Relationship between the Brahmin Landlords (Jermis) and other 'lower caste' — Kanamdars — Landholders — Impact of the Mysorean conquest of Malabar — Kerala's speciality : Its Ecological Condition.